"The Knickerbookers" Will Con- That New Athletic Club Scheme tain Some Quaint Specialties.

News and Notes About People of the Fast Time of Ice Yachts on th Stage World.

It is said that the new comic opera. "The and puff melodiously away; there is the song of a Dutch seaman, which has been described as an antiquatedly rollicking; then there is an interest and the guests whom they notic.

There is plenty of privacy in such mills and spently spinning song for Miss Camille D'Arville, generally blood is freely splitted. But this is possible to the guests whom they notice.

There is plenty of privacy in such mills and spently spinning song for Miss Camille D'Arville, generally blood is freely splitted. But this is not accepted as a record by the Clipper Annual, which gives the privacy in such mills and by the privacy in such mills and spently at this is plant that he people at the splitted by the privacy in such mills and by the Will play the part of the Governor's daughter, Karrina; Miss Jessie Bartlett Davis will be Friscilla; Eugene Cowles will be the Governor's trumpeter, and Barnabee will be William the Testy. The Bostonians were to have done this opera in New York at the Garsuccess of "Robin Hood," Pattl's reminiscences are being edited by Mr. Beatty Kingston, and it is said that they will make some very interesting reading. If Patti tells the truth and nothing but the truth, her book should be a money maker.

it is rumored that Tom Prior, of the definite Digray Bell Comic Opera Company, may possibly take "Jupite" out again, and that he will make an effort to put Dizey at the head of the company. Dixey and Bell have been equally unfortunate this season so far.

Maggie Cline, who no longer appears at Tony Pastors, has a new song by Edwin Stern, which she aired for the first time Staruray night at the Fidello Club. Miss Cline was in excellent voice, and the song, which was well received, was called "Merintyre." The fair Marguerite forgot the words of one verse, so she called out to the author, who sat in front, "say, Eddie, give us the lines." In spite of assurances that there is really no difficulty other than a vecal one between Tony Pastor and the Cline, it is known that the lady is slimply waiting for her contract with Tony to expire before accepting a new engagement.

Miss Ida Vernon has withdrawn her rich and mellow scream from the Potter-Bellew "Therease" company. This is the second time that Miss Vernon has resigned from that organization this season.

The Clipper Athletic Club has now recreted the whole building on the northwest corpor. The same boat the stock in the contract with this season.

The Clipper Athletic Club has now recreted the whole building on the northwest corpor. The club at the second time that Miss Vernon has resigned from that organization this season.

The latest thing in baliets is a real football game. This is a feature of one of the English pantomimes.

The Fifth Avenue Theatre programme of this week was discussed yesterday with much laughter on the Rialto. In addition to telling where Mrs. Blanc.got her costumes and gowels, the management gave the addresses of the firm that supplied the furniture—from Bowery warerooms; of the company that gave the Japanese screens and Chinese brich-brac, and of the organization that turnished the silver lee-urn in the foyer. On that tenurs that lovely, cool, lossly lee-urn! It was also related that "members of this company wear the the celebrated bash, Dash a Biank's fine snoes."

Manager Proctor says that with the new policy of giving continuous performances at his Twenty-third street house, to go into effect next week, New Yorkers will get at popular prices that for which other managers charge a dollar and a half.

Here is another item for the scrapbook of Mrs. Kendal's admirers. The gentle gramatic matron opened a fair at Nottingham the other day. She was in great feather, and the principal attraction of the entertainment. A young woman presented Mrs. Kendal instantly had an eye to business. She took the bouquet to pieces, sold the flowers one by one at prices ranging from sixpence to hair a crown, disposed of the whole jot in about five minutes, and handed in the proceeds to the fair's committee.

Spare Pearline Spoil the Wash

Said to Be Growing.

Shrewsbury River.

Knickerbockers," by Reginald de Koven and Harry B. Smith, to be given by the Boston to-morrow night, is as that the was spoken of exclusively in this column last week, is rapidly assuming substantonians in Boston to-morrow night, is as agreeably Dutch as "The Fencing Master" is of policy to be carried out in the conduct of Italian, and "Robin Hood" English. There contests. The incorporators of the new club is a tuneful song during which the old Dutch. propose to pattern their bouts after the style lyn. men in the piece light their historic pipes now followed in the New York and Manhattan and puff melodiously away; there is the song Athletic clubs, and members are to be indi-

The praises of tobacco are sung during the an element in pugilism that people at the opera in a very musical way, but it is reported that no particular firms will be adver- expressed when a contest is not characterized ing the performance. Miss Camille D'Arville is being made to obtain a portion of the Lynch officers last night. tised and smoking will not be permitted dur. with a generous flow of the "ruby." An effort den Theatre, but they declined to disturb the been invited to manage the new Club. That to elect new officers Wednesday, Jan. 11. lighters will not get the worst of it by any Skippers of ice yacuts are revening in the sport now adays, and the freezing spell promoter that announcement that diltert and sullivan have become reconciled and will revolve a new series of comic operas. The celebrated collaborateurs remain just as they have been for a long time—so near and yet so far. Gilbert, by the bye, who is generally locked upon as a crusty and bard-hearted individual, is doing a great deal just now to change that impression. An aged bailad singer, charies Martin by name, applied to the increttist for help. Gilbert raised a subscription for him amounting to 2100, and has promised the old man a guinea a week during the rest of his life—and more, if necessary.

Skippers of ice yacuts are revening in the sport how adays, and the freezing spell promotes to keep the excitement up for some time of itset keep the excitement up for some time of the stress in this neighborhood, and daily be ice boats in this neighborhood, and daily be races are held with most exciting results. Yesterday the race for the challenge pennant in the third class was sailed by Capt. Hendrickson's Siect, Capt. Irwin's Georgic and Capt. Burd's Zit. The distance was ten miles and its siect did the trick in 18 miles and 13 seconds, the fastest time for the distance made on the shrewsbury. The same boats will sail again this alternoon. ises to keep the excitement up for some time of the Williamsburg Framers' Union, Paul Fet. The Shrewsbury River in and about Red Bank, N. J., is the rendezzon at the Control of the Williamsburg Framers' Union, Paul Fritz has been elected to succeed him.

The Clipper Athletic Club has now rested the whole building on the northwest corner of one Hundred and Seventh street and Lexington avenue, and recently refitted the interior of the whole house. The Club will open the house to the ladies on Tuesday evening. Jan. 10. with an entertainment and reception. On Tuesday evening, Jan. 24, the Clippers will hold their monthly "stag," and the Athletic Committee reports having secured a ten-tound glove contest for that evening, with lots of other well-known talent.

Ing.

The Obio State Trade and Labor Assembly is in session at Columbus. Yesterday resolutions were adopted advising local unions to take independent political action whenever opportunity offers.

For an alleged too severe criticism of Cigar-Makers Union No. D7 the Boston Central Labor Union has consured Frank K. Foster, editor of the Labor Leader, the official organ of the C. L. U.

Since the great New Orleans strike and the splendid showing made by the colored union-lists the color line has almost been wiped out,

Here is a reply to a challenge published pesterday:

I noticed in yesterday's EVENING WORLD that Trank Patterson, of Brooklyn, is auxious to tight some 118 point man. If he will call on groum municate with me at the above address he will hear something to his advantage.

The swell Knickerbocker Bowling Club will roll its initial games of the year at the Tennis Building. 712 West Forty-first street, Feb. 8. The trophy this year will be a statue of Columbus.

m. Champion Light-Weight Wrestler of America.
Charley Nocl. of the Crescent City Ciub, of New Oricans, has offered a $7.500 purse for a light between Billy Myer and Dick Burge. The latter hasn't accepted yet, as he averathat he wishes to go at McAuliffe first. Burges is sparring Jun Hall with Muldcon's company in the East this week.

Bully Murphy, the Australia

The newly elected officers of the New York Caledonian Club were installed last night, and after the exercises it was reported that Andrew Carnegie and donated $50,000 to the Association to assist in the building of a new club-house.

SKETCH OF THE NEW OPERA. SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES. Who made a mile in 2m, 20a, against. Sanders 2.31. Ballard made a half mile in 1.12.a second faster than the previous best record, and lihodes made the five-miles in 13.03 4-5, beating dither's 13.29.

. . . To A. A. U .- Charles F. Senk swam a mile

THE WORLD OF LABOR.

means that the new Club will be a direct rival california miners are holding a Convention of the Coney Island Athletic Club, and in the at Pueblo to form a State organization. The German-American Painters and Decerator't nion gained four new members this

Skippers of ice yachts are reveiling in the open thow adays, and the freezing spell prom-

Red Bank, N. J., is the rendezvous of all the ice boats in this neighborhood, and daily races are held with most exciting results.

All members of the New York Boiler-Makers' Union in arrears must explain to President Frank Stevens at once or they will be dropped from the roll.

The bakers' unions of Pennsylvania have formed a State organization, with head-quarters in Philadelphia. The Executive Committee will be organized Sunday, Jan. 15

Secretary Patrick McBride, of the United Mine-Workers, is in Connellsville, Pa., to form an organization of coke-workers, 14,000 of whom are expected to join.

of the C. L. U.

Since the great New Orleans strike and the splendid showing made b. the colored union-lists the color line has almost been wiped out, at least so far as the latter organizations in the Crescent City are concerned.

Metal-Polishers' Union No. 3 elects: C. Bishop, President; J. Rice, Vice-President; J. Carr. Recording Secretary; J. Kinney, Financial Secretary; J. G. V'illert, Treasurer; P. Graham, Sorgeant-at-Arms; P. Stanton, W. Delaney, W. Castor, Trustees.

W. Delaney, W. Castor, Trustees.

New officers of Local Assembly 4.838, K. of

"Metal Platers and Polishers: E. Schineiler, Siaster Worsman; J. Fagan, Worthy Foreman; J. Hogan, Treasurer; C. Day, Recording Secretary; T. Geogchegan, Judge; A.
Stevici, Financial Secretary; G. Earl, Judge
Advocate; A. Snyder, Clork; J. Feeney,
Librarian; W. B. Smullen, Statistican; T.
Geogehegan, Walsing Delegate.

One of the men who worked during the strike at the shop of Levy Bros. had the audacity to apply for admission to membership in Cigar-Packers Union No. 251. He was, of course, rejected. Last week the union granted the label to three manufacturers. An evening entertainment is to be held Feb. 11.

Billy Murphy, the Australian, who is to meet Griffen at Concy Island Feb. 6, is due here next week.

The newly elected officers of the New York Caledonian Club were installed last night. The National Executive Committee of the North American Turner Bund, located in St. I. uts, has issued a circular to all local turn-ers' societies in this country asking them to be not amended. The circular says that to restrict immigration would be a violation of the lundamental principles of the Republic, which, hitherto, has been considered throughout the world an asylum and haven of refuge to all oppressed and persecuted lovers of liberry.

George Kenny challenges any 130-pounder in America, and Wallace Ross, the oarsman, is anxious to try Ed Hanlan for the Police Gazette champtonship trophy. If Hanlan retures, liosa says he will row the winner of the Bubear-Hosmer race on Jan. 10.

Ted Pritchard will sail from England shortly to meet Alec Gregorins at New Orleans. The inter says he was badly treated by the Muldon show managers in Boston, receiving $50 for a week's work when he was promised $300.

latter says he was baddy treated by the Muldoon show managers in Boston, receiving $50 for a week's work when he was promised $300.

Bill slavin says he will face Buff Costello in Buffaio for a decent purse.

Darby O'Brien, the Brooklyn ball-player, is convalescing at St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn.

SPICED SCISSORINGS.

And Won't Gotham's, Too !

In England nobody is permitted to pass the loor of a theatry with hat or bonnet. The resulance. Let the new year make the theatre hat go to the rear in the City of Brotherly Love, Won't

No Stuff in Drenme.

Remember in the baleyon year of 1893 that reaming of prosperity won't pay for the price

Save Those Golden Buckles! | New York is trying to annex Brooklyn. If it doesn't there is a city down in the Lake Michigan mud that's going to scoop the gold burk es off of Father Knickerbocker's shoes in the 1900

Gree Figs:
[From the Chicago Times.]
France export to this country annually more French champagne as France exports.

Prim the Louisellie Cour ex-Journal.]
More than enough has been done at the expense of the people in behalf of the manufacturers, mines, ships and rainstorms; now let the people alone in the enjoyment of their bard-earned

Perhaps. One woman has gone insane because of her bired girl. Perhaps that is the easiest way. WORLDLINGS.

pipe which the Shah smokes when he desire be particularly luxurious is said to be worth $320,000. It is set with diamonds, rubles and

It is computed by the astronomers that the temperature on the the planet Neptune reaches 900 degrees below zero.

romen. world sixty-seven people die every minute. Paris gardeners use toads as insect extermina toads in the French capital. men into the field in case of war. The youngest criminal in Kentucky has just been released from the Todd County Jail. He is a negro named Henry Matthews, eight years old, and was put in Jail for horse stealing.

Capt. Samuel Barron, who died in Norfolk, a., recently, was a grandson of Commodore with Stephen Decator, in which Decator was killed.

What is supposed to be the longest beard in Pristence is attached to the chin of the French sculptor Louis Coulon, of Montlucon. It measures 7% feet in length and is still growing. The badge of office of the Levi Mayer of Lou-lon contains dismonds worth $120,000.

VACRANT VERSES.

What Could She Do? If I kissed you would you be in-bugnant with me-make resistance? Finels and binds and order me in Tragic tones to "keep my distance?" Greak your pretty vote in two Calling some one to assist you. Tell me, sweet, what would you do If I kissed you?

If you kissed me I might scald you Under certain circumstances; And at more than arms-length hold you To discourage your advances. But if none were near but you.

As at this minute—to assist me, Tell me, please, what could I do.

If you kissed me?

Harlem I.

A Theosophical Wish. My soil were wandering through the reaim of space.

Seeking some future home, some destination.

Or, as it were, some wayside resting-place—
A kind of temporary habitation—
A post-house in Kiernity's great race—
Pd either choose to wander, a non-resident,
Or take a lease upon some flush bank president.

In the Garden of Eden. "I've just been down the warden, Ad,"
Said Eve unto her spouse.
"Discussing apples with a anske
Down by the chicken house;
What think you of a sn. ke that speaks
Our language clear and pure!"
"I think that you," her husband said,
Should try the Keeley cure."
—Omaka Warld-Herald,

O'NEILL'S Seal and Persian GRAND OPERA-HOUSE RESERVED SEATS, Orchogrant Carcin and 50c. WEIDNESDAY MATINEE, NATURDAY.

6TH AVE., 20TH TO 2IST ST.

OUR ANNUAL SALE OF LADIES'

OPENS TO-MORROW, THURSDAY.

Ladies' Cambric Corset Covers, trimmed with embroidery and lace; Chemises and Drawers in muslin, with tucks and ruffles,

Ladies' Gowns, Chemises and Drawers, plain and trimmed with embroidery, in good muslin; also Corset than four times as much champagne as she consumes at home. But Uncle Sam, not to be outdone, consumes more than four times as much

Ladies' Gowns, Chemises, Drawers, Skirts and Corset wages and teach the capitalists to take care of Covers, Cambric and Fine Muslin, with deep ruffles of embroidery and laces, lawn cambric and muslin, elaborately trimmed with tine embroidery and laces,

Ladies' Extra fine Muslin and Cambric Gowns, mises, Drawers and Skirts, handsomely trimmed with Chemises, Drawers and Skirts, handsomely trimmed with It is said that Russis could put 4,550,000 colored and white Embroidery and Laces; also Lawn

O'NEILL & CO., THE SCOUT. 6th Ave., 20th to 21st St.

A Discovery.

"There's that fellow across the sireet

Judge Smith, now a resident of Phoenix, Ariz., is visiting friends in this city, says starting up again," said the young man dis- the St. Louis Re, utdie. The Judge was once consolately. "He has been playing for the a prosecuting lawyer in the little town of replied his musical irlend; "that's fending a case before Judge Buck Hancock, the on the Black." "Yes," replied his musical friend; "that's fending a case before Judge Buck Hancock, 'The Watch on the Rhine had a Waterbury frequently go out of the court-room. Judge the watch on the Rhine had a Waterbury frequently go out of the court-room. Judge Hancock finally got tired of the delay in the Hancock finally got tired of the delay in the "That's all right," replied the sugar, case caused by Smith's absence and repriyou haven't as much sand." How Is Your Blood? manded him. Finally Smith came into the room with his hat on. The judge saw his opportunity and called out. "Mr. Smith, I fine you $50 for contempt of court."

Made Up His Fine to the Judge.

" Very well, Your Honor,', was the reply. " I'll pay it to-morrow."
The case went on. The next day Hancock was in a better humor and, desiring to go out for a moment, called Judge Smith to the bench. After Judge Hancock had left the Constance—Because he talked so positively room the acting justice turned to the clerk about how all children should be trained. bench. After Judge Hancock had left the and said

" The fine against Mr. Smith yesterday for contempt of court is remitted." And so it with a flower pinned fantastically in her

A round red spot glowed on each cheek;

"Can you press over my Leghorn hat,

ment as she laid down her spectacles.

Miss Seaman?" asked the beauty.

Coats, Jackets, Mantles & Capes,

of new designs and recent make, and at moderate

C. G. Gunther's Sons, 184 Fifth Avenue, N. Y

1,000 OF THE SWELLEST IN TROUSERINGS FROM THE LUNDON MARKETS

PASHION THAT A ... AUT HA ... $4. FORMERLY SOLD AT $7.50.

EDEN MUSEE. NEW GROUPS.
PRINCESS LILY DOLGDROUKI. PRINCESS LILY DOLGOROUKI. DANKO GABOR'S ROYAL GYPSY BAND. TONY PASTOR'S. Bet 3 And Til Aves. Grand Success. MLLE, PAQUERETTE, Big Hit.
Serial VICTORIA, L.W. K. William. ENIJOU THEATRE. Broadway, near 30th st. Evenings at 8.30. Mais, Wednesday and Saturday. RUSS of LL'S COAL DIANS to the eccentric

Ladies' Gowns, Chemises, Drawers and Skirts in cambric and muslin, elaborately trimmed with time THE MONSIER ORCHESTRION LILLIAN RUSSELL LA CIGALE. STANDARD THEATRE, EVENING $15 AT 2.

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE, Caradates THORE YEAR CRUISKEEN LAWN. PARK THEATRE. Base sand

WEBER & FIELDS' OWN CO. MANOLA AND MASON.

THE IDEA.

JACQUEN'S 50-DAY FAST.

2th wark over. Koster & Biai's.

25c. West 23d St. Private Halb. 25c. LYCEUM THEATRE. 4th ave. and a MERICAN ABROAD at 8.15.
Matiness THURSDAY, SATURDAY.

"I've more guit than you have," said cake of chalk to the pound of sugar,

Strangers.

He-Humph! I am going to marry money. She-Then I should think you would have to get up a more indimate acquaintance with it than you have at present.

He Knows It All. Altalie-How do you know he is a bachelor? fils Only One.

Mr. Munn (to his daughter)—I suppose this foreign suitor of yours hesn't a cent. BE sure and use Mns. Wissiow's Scottling Miss Munn-oh, yes, he has, pa. He has Struct for your children while testuing. 25c. . lovely English accent.

"Found dead in her cheer," said Mrs. | Isabel looked at the picture. Good her bony fingers trembled with excite. Webb, "A-smilling as happy as a child, heavens, had Genevieve Seaman looked as fair and dimpled and sm.ling as that? Isabel drew a long breath. So she had And the thought flashed across her mind died and never knew how cruelly she had that it was well that this Capt. Gleason "Oh, my dear, I am afraid not," said been deceived. She drew Mary Crane had not been undeceived. "Yes," she she repeated softly, "she is dead."

> "Yes, I was her friend-at least, as Isabel, feeling like an impostor.

Miss Islay, it seems almost like a dream." pact of secreey. full of tenrs. Isabet moved uneasily: corner of the village cemetery, and on ing with his hands behind his back and she was almost frightened at what she the very day of the funeral Isabel Islay his head drooping on his breast.

Miss Scannan was buried this morn- married to Isabel Isley. ing," she said. "Oh, I'm so sorry!

"Tell her?" echoed Lucy Telton. Was she a friend of yours?"

eaves, and Miss Genny's cat rubbed itself against the door-sill as if begging to be "A friend!" repeated the stranger, as his pocket. "See, here is her picture! I've waited all these years to make a home for her, and now-she is dead!"

"Then, perhaps, you can tell me somehis voice was choked; he turned his to-morrow he is coming back to me. Oh, there the three girls entered into a com- all that she could-all that was good and cheering and hopeful-and Capt. Gles-She laughed again, but her eyes were Miss Genevieve was buried in a shady son went back to the village hotel, walk-had done. The joke did not seem half mat a tall, learned stranger walking along. For a time he truly mourned the sweetso pouse as it had at first, since poor the street, canning the houses with keen. heart of his youth, but no one can grieve forever. Moss grows over the fallen tree; ' Can you tell me," said he, "where violets bloom over the new-made grave. She took advantage of the entrance of Miss Seaman lives Miss Genevieve Poor Miss Genevieve was dead and puried, and when the next Summer blossomed over the land Capt. Gleason was

"If death was really so near her I'm

THEIR PRACTICAL JOKE.

A Letter Which Brought a Ray of Glad- never come." ness to One Heart.

The yellow narcissus was in bloom in | "She might divide with us! Here comes East." the nest little yard that fronted the vil- Miss Scaman! Now for some fun." lage post-office; the maple trees had advanced with a smirk on her counter. "Well, from the dropped their red stars long ago, and nance, wearing a faded shawl, whose folds be her lover. Let's make it fervent as here and there one found pink clusters scarcely covered the flat basket she car- fire and sweet as sugar. Let's lay it on of honey-sweet trailing arbutus in the ried.

her jacket as she sauntered up to see if ence. there were any letters for her; but they were no pinker than her cheeks.

A little group of men and women had gathered there for the same purpose. The women eyed Isabel and wondered how it was that her dresses always fitted face. so stylishly; the men looked admiringly at her big blue eyes and rosy complexion. Two or three other mill girls joined be passing."

Isabel; they laughed and talked gayly as the spectacled old Postmaster sorted the | ble titter of the mill girls. aperture, and the Postmaster cried briskly : 'Naow then, who wants their mail?" she'd get tired of coming." Isabel stepped forward.

'Islay, Miss I, Isabel Islay, Miss Isa- years ago! She had a beau or something. for you. Who next?"

"Anything for me, Mr. Postmaster?" Isabel Islay had a bunch in the front of she demanded, with all-assumed indiffer- Genny Seaman," said Mary Crane, who > Postmaster. "Are you sure?" "Yes, mum." A blank expression crept across her

"Oh, but it really doesn't signify. I It will be such fun!" thought I'd just inquire as I chanced to It was morning-a blue-skyed breeze

"There ain't a mail comes in but Miss crashed through the village, the usual At last the unpainted pine partition Gonny Scaman's here a watching for it," crowd began to assemble in the little slid back, the spectacles appeared in the said the Postmaster oracularly.

much as a postal card. I should think and black-eyed Mary Crane, and pres-"Miss Genevieve Seaman?" said the ping in with the peculiar gait which the girls boarded. "Oh, that all happened cat walking upon walnut shells.

util girls, as Isabel received her treasures. it sort of upsot her brain, and she ain't and one for Miss Genevieve - Seaman."

decent living. But she's been expecting a letter these twenty odd years and it's "Girls," said Isabel Islay, as they sai

"Was he really her lover, Isabel?" " Well, from the man she imagined to

"In short, let's play a joke on Miss was retrimming an old straw hat with "No. mum." carelessly answered the lilac ribbons and a bunch of violets. " Just that," said Isabel.

"But you don't know even the fellow" name, Isabel." "I can find that out. Mrs. Webb knows, and I can easily coax it out of her.

the cumbrous old four-horsed stage had post-office. And she never zets a letter-not so Isabel Islay was there, and Lucy Felton tiptoed up to the counter, her color and hurried away like a startled wild ani- only a joke." bel lalay!" road out the old man. "These and he went away—nobody jest knew man. scrutinizing each letter with provok- faded blue eyes full of intense rapture. letter with other eyes upon her. She felt "What for? She'll find it out soon. They had stopped opposite the little happy," thought leaded blue eyes full of intense rapture. "Two for Miss Islay," said the old changing from saftron to scarlet, her mal to its cover. She could not open that, "Is it true: A letter for me me! that she must treasure it to herself like enough. She needn't have been such a gate where the wheel-tracks of the hearse will always think of her as young and you. Who next?"

Is abel gets all the letters!" giggled the

"Reckon she didn't know herself. And bable Jenkins, one for Widder Hopper And I've waited for it all these years! All one who has discovered a precious jewel. silly, anyhow!" . On her way home from the mill that " it will kill her !" pleaded Isabel.

a customer to slip out of the little shop.

Girs," said she to her co-conspita. Isabel started.

house where the tin sign, "Millinery easily," houghed Lucy. and Dressmaking," swung creaking iu the wind. The window blinds were Summan?" said Mrs. Webb at the board- let in. fastened back, the parlor was opened ing-house breakfast table the next mornand dusted. Miss Genevieve was moving ing. as she poured the coffee and helped he drew an old-fashioned miniature from

> "No," said she, "What is it?" Some heart trouble, the doctor says."

Isabel looked guiltily up.

the little woman, with a hysterical laugh. and Miss Felton aside. "Haven't you heard? I I'm to be mar. "Girls," said she, "you must never ried very soon. Capt. Edward Gleason breathe a syllable of this to anybody.

years " Her eyes shone, her voice fal- "Yes, but that doesn't justify our crus face away. tered with the cestasy of her soul. "And elty," whispered Isabel. And then and Isabel told him, in a low sweet voice

Dressmaker" yet creaked in the wind, another practical joke."-Eichange.

evening Isabel Islay stopped at the little "No, it won't. People don't die so the red sun was sinling behind the low

" And were you her friend ?"

glad I wrote the letter that made her were yet visible. The sign "Milliner and beautiful! But I never, never will play

BOXING MONKEYS.

Frank Cotton and his Donkeys, Belie Carter, woman with horse's mane; the Lombardis, knife throwers, 2 Stage Cos. No. 1, Two Opphan, No. 2, Variety
Huber's 14th St. Palace Museum.

ACADEMY OF MUNIC, Gilmore & Tompkins, Proprietors and Managers, Eugene Tompkins's Revival Mats, Wed. & Sat. at 2. CROOK.

IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL, ATTENDED

GILSON. | BURLESQUE CO. | ROSTELLE.

4 HOURS OF FUN!

AMUSEMENTS.

1 4TH STREET THEATRE. Near 6th ave Evenings at 3. Matiness Wed, and Sat. LAST WEEK of the FAMOUS HANLONS in SUPERBA.

PALMER'S THEATRE BEONSON ARISTOCRACY

COHEN&CO.,
27 and 29 Ann St.,
One Door West of Nassau.

MISSENENTS

THE Metropolitan Production of the NEW SOUTH, J. ORREINE and J. ORREINE AND ACCOUNTS AND MACHINE AND ACCOUNTS AND MACHINE AND ACCOUNTS AND MACHINE AND ACCOUNTS AND MACHINE AND MACHINE

Nest Week, Jan. 9, Romee and Juliet.

CASIND.
Evenings at 8, 15. Mediage Saturday at 2. PRO-ADWAY AND HIPTH ST.
EVENINGS AT 15. Mediage Saturday at 2. WITH MARCHE "EMPENT.

Admission See. Seats reserved one mouth ahead.

PROVE'S MAD SQ. Theatre. Even 8, 30, Seat. Mat.
INVEST. P. SULLAR.
SULCESS.
CHINATOWN

Sourcuir night, 450th performance, Friday, Jan. 20 MANHATTAN HOUSE MATTHER SAVERDAY THOMAS Q. The Sparsling Counte Opera SEABRUOK .. A INLE of CHAMPAGNE his Operato. & Ballet by C. A. Byrnes & L. Harrison

5TH AVE. THEATRE Broadway and 28to St. Blanc. DECEPTION. A SOCIETY FAD. PEOPLE'S THEATRE. PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

VIOLETTE. MATINEE TO-DAY.
VIOLETTE. MARINELLI.
OPERETTA. VAUDEVILLE. NOVELTIES.
Last Week. Matinees To-day and Saturday at 2.
Mr. John Steller THE CRUST The Pronounced son's Company of Players in SOCIETY. The New Year.

MILITARY FAIR REBEL. WORTH'S MUSSUM, 6th ave. and 30th at. Open 11 A.M. Admission, 10 cents, Count Officol's, Transparent Man. A Puzzle to the Medical Profession.

HIBLO'S. MANHOOD. PROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS

HUBER AND GEBHARDT'S CASINO.

14---GEORGIA MINSTRELS---14 and a Strong Variety Company. GRAND OPERA-HOUSE. LEWIS MORRISON, FAUST

COLUMBIA, EDWIN KNOWLES & CO., Proprietor, Mississipper Wed and Sat.

JANE, MISS JOHNSTONE BENNET. AMPHION, Proprietor and Managers.

Page Learning, Maturess Wed, and Sandan.

MARIE WAINWRIGHT, A: You Like it.

MARIE WAINWRIGHT,

COL. SINN'S NEW PARK THEATRE.
This week with naturous Wedgesday & Saturday.

WM. H. CRANE IN THE
And his admirable company SENATOR.

BEFORORD AVE. THEATRE.

SET YEAR'S WEEK. MAIL Mun. Wed. and Sec.

THE KHEDIVA.

Not week, John C. Rice.

NOVELTY J. E. Robbins, Sole Manager & Prop.
Week commencing Monday, Jan.
FZRA KENDALL in A PAIR OF KIDS.
Neil Week, Walter Sanford's ILAG OF

GAYETY THEATRE. Broadway & Throop Ave.
Hyue d Behman, Managers. Tris week, matinees Monday, Lunreday and Saturday.
IV DE ~ COMEDIAN.
Popular prices, Box of the open from VA.M. to 9 P.M.

In the Line of Business.

Doctor A-Why do you give the little Smith boys so much candy, cake and soda water? Doctor B-I'm Smitn's family doctor.

organization this season.

420 WARREN STREET, BROOKLYN, Jan. 3.

The appended communication was received at this office to-day:

New indoor track bleyele records were made tyesterday at Milwaukee by John S. Johnson, Congress asking that the immigration laws fairly been herself since. She's a very quite scrumptionaly, and so she earns a at the round table that evening, laughing and talking, "let's write a letter to that poor old thing from her lover in the day, with the air full of growing scents Then she withdrew amid the very audi- and blue-bird whistles-and soon after

ently Miss Genevieve Seaman came trip

"SEE, HERE IS HER PROTURE " Isabel flashed a merry glance at her | She hid it under her shawl, cast a de-Anything for me, Mr. Rider," she careworn woman of the house where the irreverent village children companions as the poor little dressmaker flant lock around at the neighbors' faces tors. "we must tell her that that it is you may perhaps have heard of him-he Let the secret die with this poor little much as any one here," falteringly owned used to be a resident of Milltown he woman." has made his fortune, it seems, in New "But she died happy at last," said York, and he's coming back to claim an Mary, with the tears running down her thing of her. I wanted to surprise herold promise I made him twenty years cheek, "Telleving that her old sweetheart and now"ago. My dear, he has loved me-twenty was coming back to her."

Miss Genevieve accepted it in such dead troubled eyes.

"Heard the news about Miss Genny to and fro in her best India silk gown, the eggs and bacon around.